

Curriculum vitae et studiorum

Prof. Gideon Sapir

Prof. Gideon Sapir received his law degree from Bar-Ilan University, an LL.M. and S.J.D. from Northwestern University, and Rabbinical Ordination from the Israeli Chief Rabbinate. His teaching and research areas of interest are constitutional law (with concentration on religion and state) and constitutional theory. He was a Senior Lecturer at Northwestern University Law School, and visiting professor at the University of Toronto and Monash University School of Law. He is the author and editor of several books and of many articles in Israel, England and the United States. His book (with Daniel Statman), Religion & State - Legal & philosophic Inquiry, is scheduled for publication in 2013.

In addition to his academic work, Prof. Sapir is involved in social causes. In this capacity, he is the founder and academic supervisor of two legal clinics, under the auspices of Bar-Ilan Law Faculty: Disability Rights Clinic and Elderly Rights Clinic.
