

ESSENCE PROJECT FINAL CONFERENCE

Brussels 14 October 2014

Piemonte Region representation office - Rue de Trône 62 - 1050 Brussels

09.30-10.30 Registration and welcome coffee

10.30-11.00 Elena Ragazzi (CNR-Ceris): The vision of ESSENCE

11.00-11.20 Adam Szolyak (European Commission, DG Energy, Unit B1 - Market I: Networks & Regional Initiatives): The energy infrastructure protection challenges and the current policy context

11.20-11.40 Kostantinos Moulinos (ENISA): The role of standards for the critical infrastructure in the present context

11.40-12.00 Fernando Garcia Guitierrez (Deloitte): The Essence approach, an introduction to the case study definition and evaluation criteria

12.00-12.40 Presentation of two case studies and of the cost of standard implementation

Hanna Burczy (IEN): The Polish case study

Daniela Pestonesi (Enel) and Marco Alessi (Abb Italia): The Italian case study

12.40-14.00 Lunch

*The project has being funded by the EU under the CIPS Programme (EC DG Home)
The Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein, the sole responsibility lies with the authors.*

14.00-14.30 Clementina Bruno, (Università del Piemonte Orientale): Analysing the benefits of emerging security standards with reference to the case study scenarios

14.30-15.00 Elena Ragazzi (CNR-Ceris) – The legacy of the project: further research and recommendations

15.00-15.15 Coffee break

Panel discussion chaired by Tadeusz Wlodarczyk (ENTSOE).

15.15-16.15 Planned interventions:

- Tadeusz Wlodarczyk (ENTSOE): Present state of security countermeasures and TSOs' vision for the future
- Torben Fell (European Commission, DG HOME, Unit A1 – Crisis management Terrorism): Cyber security and CIP challenges in EPCIP
- Sandro Bologna (Deputy Coordinator of ERNCIP Thematic Group): lessons from IACS (Industrial Automation & Control Systems) case studies for the security of power transmission and distribution.
- Alberto Stefanini (ESSENCE internal evaluator): open questions and policy issues for the discussion of the Essence results

16.15-16.45: Open discussion

16.45-17.00: Conclusion drawn by the chairman and the ESSENCE coordinator

VENUE

Conference hall Piemonte Region representation office -
Rue de Trône 62 - 1050 Brussels

Project website: <http://essence.ceris.cnr.it/>

CONTACTS:

Elena Ragazzi (Ceris-CNR): e.ragazzi@ceris.cnr.it

Paolo Cesaro : cesaropaolo@gmail.com / T. +32(0)477 719301

REGISTRATIONS + map and info at:

<https://www.euagenda.eu/2014/10/14/Potential-impact-of-security-measures-for-power-systems-controls>

*The project has being funded by the EU under the CIPS Programme (EC DG Home)
The Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein, the sole responsibility lies with the authors.*